Arie get ready the horse! We might need to make a run for it!
There's no need to worry.
I'm sure Peppy will come back.

Bye Bye Arie~
sigh... Today must be a cursed day for me.. Things just can't get any worser than this.
If I can injure him or distract him somehow, I should be able to make a run for the horse and make some distance between us... I'll be lucky if I even survived this..
